The Website Policy adapted for Whiston Junior and Infant School

School Aims

The school aims to provide quality education for children between four and eleven years of age. Our aim is to provide high standards of teaching and learning through:

- A rich, broad, balanced and creative curriculum which sustains the engagement of all learners.
- Operating an environment which is safe, healthy, caring and supportive for everyone.
- Encouraging self-reliance and pride in all achievements.
- Developing learning skills and a love of learning, including the ability to question, enquire and be independent in their approach to learning.
- Promoting the development of tolerance and respect for others, regardless of race, creed or gender and ensure that all learners have equality of opportunity.

Aims of the Website Policy

The School operates the following policies on its website regarding the use of photographs, to ensure the privacy and safety of pupils at the school:

- Where pupils are named, only their first names are given;
- Where a pupil is named, no photograph of that pupil is displayed;
- Where a photograph is used which shows a pupil, no name is displayed.

By observing these points, the school ensures that visitors to the website cannot link images of pupils to names of pupils. The school follows a policy of seeking parents' permission before using images which show pupils on the website. No other private information about pupils is ever published on the website such as surnames or contact details.

The purpose of the school website

Information is added to the school website to provide clear links of communication between staff, parents, children and governors at Whiston Junior and Infant School. Information is also stored on the school website to meet the DfE requirements.

Monitoring of the Policy

The Headteacher will monitor the website weekly to ensure the policy is adhered to. If there is a breach of the policy the Headteacher will investigate in line with the Professionalism and Whistleblowing Policies.

All users of Whiston J & I School Website will need to comply to the website Policy and also the Website Privacy Policy and Website Disclaimer published on the next pages.
